Assignors may pursue recovery on Claims directly or may use other recovery agents in connection with the Assignor's efforts to recover on Claims. With respect to the Assignors of the assigned Claims, some of our agreements exclude from the assignment of Claims those Claims that are assigned to or being pursued by other recovery vendors of the Assignor at the time of the assignment. We have identified instances where the Assignor did not filter its data provided to us to remove such Claims. This resulted in some Claims being identified by us for purposes of our recovery estimates.
