-Material Contracts." In such collaborations, we depend on the performance of the contractual counterparty, over which we have limited control. Therefore, such collaborations may generate lower product revenues or profit than if we were to commercialize our products ourselves. We may wish to establish additional collaborations with third parties to commercialize our product. We may not be successful in entering into such marketing and distribution arrangements with third parties or in entering in such marketing and distribution arrangements with third parties on favorable terms.
