BKV Corporation ("BKV," the "Company," "our," "we," and "us") is a forward-thinking, growth-driven energy company focused on creating long-term risk-adjusted stockholder value through the development of natural gas producing assets, the ownership and operation of natural gas-fired power generation assets, and selective accretive acquisitions. Our core businesses are the production of natural gas and the generation of natural gas-fired power from our owned and operated assets, supported by a closed-loop strategy enabled by our upstream, midstream, power, and CCUS businesses.
